

8

HANDLING - INSTALLATION

CORE

DELIVERY

The company does everything within its power to insure the excellent production, packaging and delivery of its products.

Upon delivery, the cargo must be checked for possible ordered item oversights, good product condition as well as possible damages that may have been inflicted during their transportation.

In their effort for constant improvement of their services, ELASTRON S.A. wish to be directly informed of any problems that may occur during the delivery of their products.